Lasting power of attorney property and financial affairs

About this lasting power of attorney

This lasting power of attorney allows you to choose people to act on your behalf (as an attorney) and make decisions about your property and financial affairs, when you are unable to make decisions for yourself.

If you also want someone to make decisions about your health and welfare, you will need a separate form (downloadable from our website or call 0300 456 0300).

Who can fill it in?

Anyone aged 18 or over, who has the mental capacity to do so.

Before you fill in the lasting power of attorney:

- 1. Please read the guidance available at publicguardian.gov.uk or by calling 0300 456 0300. See, for example, the Lasting power of attorney creation pack or other relevant guidance booklets which are all available online or by post.
- 2. Make sure you understand the purpose of this lasting power of attorney and the extent of the authority you are giving your attorneys.
- 3. Read the separate Information sheet to understand all the people involved, and how the three parts of the form should be filled in.
- 4. Make sure you, your certificate provider(s), and your attorney(s) have read the section on page 2 called Information you must read before filling in their relevant part.

This lasting power of attorney could be rejected at registration if it contains any errors.

Information you must read

This lasting power of attorney is a legal document. Each person who signs parts A, B and C must read this information before signing.

Purpose of this lasting power of attorney

This lasting power of attorney gives your attorneys authority to make decisions about your property and financial affairs when you cannot make your own decisions. This can include running your bank accounts and savings accounts, decisions about making or selling investments and selling property, and spending your money.

When your attorneys can act for you

Your attorneys can use this lasting power of attorney only after it has been registered and stamped on every page by the Office of the Public Guardian. Your attorneys can make decisions for you as soon as this lasting power of attorney is registered — both when you have mental capacity, and when you lack mental capacity, unless you put a restriction in this lasting power of attorney.

The Mental Capacity Act

Your attorneys cannot do whatever they like. They must follow the principles of the Mental Capacity Act 2005.

Guidance about these principles is in the Mental Capacity Act Code of Practice. Your attorneys must have regard to the Code of Practice. They can get a copy from The Stationery Office at tso. co.uk or read it online at publicguardian.gov.uk

Principles of the Act that your attorneys must follow

- 1 Your attorneys must assume that you can make your own decisions unless they establish that you cannot do so.
- 2 Your attorneys must help you to make as many of your own decisions as you can. They cannot treat you as unable to make the decision in question unless all practicable steps to help you to do so have been made without success.
- 3 Your attorneys must not treat you as unable to make the decision in question simply because you make an unwise decision.
- 4 Your attorneys must make decisions and act in your best interests when you are unable to make the decision in question.
- 5 Before your attorneys make the decision in question or act for you, they must consider whether they can make the decision or act in a way that is less restrictive of your rights and freedom but still achieves the purpose.

Your best interests

Your attorneys must act in your best interests in making decisions for you when you are unable to make the decision yourself. They must take into account all the relevant circumstances. This includes, if appropriate, consulting you and others who are interested in your welfare. Any guidance you add may assist your attorneys in identifying your views.

Cancelling this lasting power of attorney

You can cancel this lasting power of attorney at any time before or after it is registered as long as you have mental capacity to cancel it. Please read the guidance available at publicguardian.gov.uk

How to fill in this form

- · Tick the boxes that apply like this
- Use black or blue ink and write clearly Cross through any boxes or sections that don't apply to you, like this:

Any other names you are known by in financial documents or accounts

 Don't use correction fluid – please cross out any mistakes and rewrite nearby. All corrections must be initialled by the person completing that section of the form (and their witness) like this:

Any other names you are known by in financial documents or accounts

WILLIAM EDWARD SMITH
A.S.B / WES. SMYTH

 Your application could be rejected if your intentions are not clear and explicit. If you are in any doubt, please start again on a new copy of the form.

What happens after you've filled it in?

The next step is to register it. You or your attorneys can do this at any time. The person applying will need to fill in a registration form and may need to pay a fee at that time. They will also need to send notices to the 'people to be told' named at part A when the application to register this lasting power of attorney is made. You can find out more and download the registration form at publicguardian.gov.uk

The 'people to be told' are given time to raise any concerns or objections. This means the earliest the Office of Public Guardian can register this lasting power of attorney is 6 weeks after they notify the donor or attorneys that an application to register has been received.

Your lasting power of attorney will end if it can no longer be used. For example, if a sole attorney dies or can no longer act for you and no replacement attorney has been named in this lasting power of attorney. Please read the guidance available at publicguardian.gov.uk

4 How you want your attorneys to make decisions

Thinking about how you want your attorneys to make decisions

- Jointly: this means that the attorneys must make all decisions together.
 For further information on appointing your attorneys jointly, see the separate.
- Jointly and severally: this means that attorneys can make decisions together and separately. This might be useful, for example, if one attorney is not available to make a decision at a certain time. If one attorney cannot act the remaining attorney is able to continue to make decisions.
- Jointly for some decisions, and jointly and severally for other decisions: this means that your attorneys must make certain decisions together and may make certain decisions separately. You will need to set out below how you want this to work in practice.

How you want your attorneys to make decisions

Choosing which decisions must be made together and which decisions may be made separately – how this will work in practice

- Please make your intentions clear about how your attorneys are to make decisions about running bank accounts and savings accounts, making or selling investments and selling property, and spending your money.
- Please check that your intentions will work in practice — It may not be possible to register or use this lasting power of attorney if, for example, a bank or building society account cannot be operated as you wish.

5 About restrictions and conditions

Putting restrictions and conditions into words

- You should read the separate guidance for examples of conditions and restrictions that will not work in practice.
- Your attorneys must follow any restrictions or conditions you put in place. But it may not be possible to register or use this tasting power of attorney if a condition is not workable.
- Either: give any restrictions and conditions about property and financial affairs here
- Or, if you would like your attorneys to make decisions with no restrictions or conditions, you should cross through this hox.

6 About guidance to your attorneys

Putting guidance into words

- Any guidance you add may help your attorneys to identify your views. You do not have to add any.
- Your attorneys do not have to follow your guidance but it will help them to understand your wishes when they make decisions for you.
- Either: Give any guidance about property and financial affairs here
- Or: if you have no guidance to add, please cross through this box.

7 About paying your attorneys

Professional charges

- Professional attorneys, such as solicitors and accountants, charge for their services. You can also choose to pay a non-professional person for their services. You should discuss payment with your attorneys and record any agreement made here to avoid any confusion later.
- You can choose to pay nonprofessional attorneys for their services, but if you do not record any agreement here they will only be able to recover reasonable out-of-pocket expenses

Lasting power of attorney Information sheet – the people involved

You are the person giving the lasting power of attorney. You are referred to as the Donor. To complete your lasting power of attorney, you need the following people involved:

- · at least one person to act as your attorney
- · at least one certificate provider
- · at least one person to be told or a second certificate provider
- · at least one witness.

Your attorney(s)

The people you want to make decisions for you. Attorneys do not have to have any legal knowledge or training.

How many? You must have at least one attorney, and you can have as many as you like. (Note, however, that too many attorneys might make things difficult in practice.)

Your replacement attorney(s)

The people you want to make decisions for you when your attorney(s) cannot act for you any more.

How many? You don't have to appoint any replacement attorneys, but you can have as many as you like.

The people to be told

Adults who know you well. Before your lasting power of attorney is registered, the 'people to be told' are given an opportunity to raise any concerns or objections.

Your attorney(s) or replacement attorney(s) cannot also act as a person to be told.

How many? You do not have to have any people to be told, but you can have up to five. If you don't have any, you must have two certificate providers.

A certificate provider

An independent person who is able to confirm that you understand the significance of your lasting power of attorney. They must have known you well for at least two years, or have relevant professional skills to enable them to confirm that you understand the significance of your lasting power of attorney (for example, your GP or solicitor). They also need to certify that no undue pressure or fraud is involved in the making of the lasting power of attorney.

Your attorney(s) or replacement attorney(s) cannot also act as a certificate provider.

A person to be told can act as a certificate provider.

How many? You must have at least one certificate provider. If you decide not to have any people to be told, you must have two certificate providers.

Independent witnesses

The people who see your lasting power of attorney being signed, and who then sign themselves to confirm that it was signed in their presence.

How many? When you sign at the end of part A your signature must be witnessed. Your certificate provider or person to be told can act as a witness. Your attorney(s) or replacement attorney(s) cannot act as a witness.

When your attorney(s) sign part C their signature(s) must be witnessed. Another attorney, your replacement attorneys, or a certificate provider can also act as a witness to the attorney's signature.
