

Only use these continuation sheets if you are told to in the lasting power of attorney (LPA) form. Many people make an LPA without needing to use a continuation sheet.

If you make two LPAs and you need to use continuation sheets for both of them, use separate sheets for each LPA.

Continuation sheet 1 - Additional people

- Use this sheet if you need space to write more names for sections 2, 4 or 6 of the LPA form.
- You must sign and date this continuation sheet before you sign section 9 of the LPA, or on the same day.

Continuation sheet 2 - Additional information

- Use this sheet if you need more space to write information for sections 3, 4 or 7 of the LPA form.
- If you have to write extra information for more than one of those sections, use a fresh copy of the sheet for each one.
- You must sign and date this continuation sheet before you sign section 9 of the LPA, or on the same day.

Continuation sheet 3 – If the donor cannot sign or make a mark

- Use this sheet if you can't sign or make a mark yourself.
- You will need someone else to sign on your behalf and two people must witness their signature.
- If you're making an LPA for health and care decisions, the person signing for you must also sign section 5 of the LPA on the same day as they sign this sheet.

Continuation sheet 4 - Trust corporation appointed as an attorney

- Use this sheet if you appointed a trust corporation as an attorney or replacement attorney.
- Someone from the trust corporation must sign this sheet instead of signing section 11 of the LPA form.
- They must sign this sheet after your 'certificate provider' has signed section 10 of the LPA form.

Trust corporation appointed as an attorney

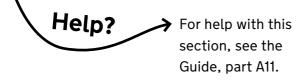

Only use this page if the donor has appointed a trust corporation as an attorney or replacement attorney

By execution of this deed the trust corporation understands and confirms all of the following:

- It has read this lasting power of attorney (LPA), including section 8 'Your legal rights and responsibilities'.
- It has a duty to act based on the principles of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 and to have regard to the Mental Capacity Act Code of Practice.
- It can make decisions and act only when this LPA has been registered.
- It must make decisions and act in the best interests of the person giving this LPA.
- It is not going through winding-up proceedings.
- It can spend money to make gifts but only to charities or on customary occasions such as birthdays, and for reasonable amounts, with regard to size of the donor's estate.
- It has a duty to keep accounts and financial records and produce them to the Office of the Public Guardian or to the Court of Protection on request.
- It can make decisions and act regarding the donor's property and financial affairs only at the time indicated in section 5 of this LPA.

Further statement by a trust corporation acting as a replacement attorney: It has the authority to act under this LPA only after an original attorney's appointment is terminated. It must notify the Public Guardian if that happens.

I/We are authorised to sign on behalf of the trust corporation acting as attorney whose details are given in this continuation sheet to this lasting power of attorney.
